Acomb, F.R.

[Cincinnati, OH]

February 21, 1942

February 21st, 1942

Mr. F. H. Acomb,
Cincinnati, Ohio.

Dr. to Henry Chapman,

Large cents, 50 at 7¢		$3.50
Postage		.19
		$ 3.69

Credit,

By cash	7.22
Check herewith to balance	$ 3.53

Sorry we could not send the amount ordered but are short of them and they are scarce in this market.

Yours very truly,

Sept. 25th, 1942.

Mr. F. R. Acomb,
Cincinnati, Ohio.

Dr. to Henry Chapman,

100 Large cents, and postage $7.22

Received payment,

Thank you.

December 7th, 1942.

Mr. W. H. Acomb,
Cincinnati, Ohio.

Dear Sir,

Your card received and we take pleasure in quoting the following. Shall be glad to send on approval if you wish.

Cents.

1797 xxxxx stems to wreath. Fair. 75c.
1798 Good. $1.
1808 Obverse fair, Rev. Very good. Date good. $1.
1811 perfect date, fair. $1.

Referring to the half cents could get you up a lot of 100 good to fine at $20. for the hundred, postage extra.

Thanking you for the inquiry,

Yours very truly,

March 20th, 1943.

Mr. F. H. Jacobs,
Cincinnati, Ohio.

Dr. to Henry Chapman,

Large cents, Lot of 100	$7.
Postage	.22
	$ 7.22

Credit,

By cash	27.31
Herewith.	$ 20.09

Dear Sir,

Sorry we could not send the half cents. Entirely out of them and were unable to get any to fill the order. We are enclosing check herewith to balance.

Thanking you for the order and regretting our inability to fill it entirely we are,

Yours very truly,

April 22nd, 1943.

Mr. F. H. Acomb,
c/o Fifth Third Union Trust Co.,
Cincinnati, Ohio.

Dr. to Henry Chapman,

Large cents,	70 at 7cs.	4.90
Half cents	50 at 20c.	10.
	Postage	.27
		$ 15.17

Credit,

By check		27.31
	Check herewith to balance	$ 12.14

Dear Sir,

Your letter with enclosure came to hand and we were entirely out of the cents and half cents. Could not fill the entire order but managed to get a lot together as per above memo and send them forward to-day. Hope they will reach you in good order. This material is very hard to get here and our usually large stock is depleted.

Thank you for your patience in waiting and regret we could not fill the order entire. With kind regards, we are,

Yours very truly,

3/9/43

Rec. F. P. Arnett
Cincinnati, Ohio

re Centenary Celebration

1 half hours 72 h. 36
Counter 100
postage

14.40
7.00
.31
21.31
21.31
0.00

By check Received

Sorry we could not render the service requested

April 23, 1945.

Mr. A. L. Smith
Old Dominion Cables

Mr. Mc Henry Chapman,

[illegible],

Received payment,

Thank you

Dear Sir,

Your letter enclosing check for £87.51 received. We are sending you 100 of the Large cable boards under separ te cover. We have sent the rest selection of cards we could get to suit your [illegible]. We are returning [illegible] ...0.0" that we have due you we have agreed to accept on [illegible] Please [illegible] acknowledge.

Assuring you very much of our best attention, we are,

Yours very truly,

Bell & Howell Company

Your letter enclosing check received and we are sending under separate cover [illegible] you included for them. Sorry we cannot fill the order.

Thanking you for same and hoping to [illegible] you in good order, we are,

Yours very truly,

Acomb, F.R.

September 17, 1943
[same as previous]

Sept. 13th, 1943.

Mr. F. R. Acomb,
Fifth Third Union Trust Co.,
Cincinnati, Ohio.

Dr to Henry Chapman,

Large cents. Lot of 100 plus postage	$7.22

Received payment,

Thank you.

October 15th, 1943.

Mr. F. R. Acomb,
Cincinnati, Ohio.

Dr. to Henry Chapman,

Lot of 100 large cents, plus postage $7.22

Received payment,

Thank you.